

RE/ Philosophy summer project

To get you ready for studying A Level Philosophy, I want you to read chapter 1 from the Green OCR text book. Copies of this chapter can be collected from R25 or main reception during the holidays.

Tasks:

- 1) Make detailed notes from pages 2-15, complete the 'revision advice' questions on page 14.
- 2) Write an essay (about 500 words) titled-
"There is no knowledge so certain that no one can doubt it." To what extent do you believe that this view is correct?

There is guidance to support you writing this essay on page 15. Answers to the revision questions on page 14 and your essay response is to be submitted in your first philosophy lesson in September. You will receive a grade for your work.

RE/ Ethics summer project

For your summer project in Ethics, I want you to start to explore some of the key issues in Ethics. I will provide you with a reader called 'Religion and Ethics', this is the first chapter on Ethics from the Green OCR text book. Copies of this will be ready to collect from R25 or from main reception over the holidays.

Tasks:

- 1) Read, make detailed notes from the chapter (pages 134- 145) and answer in detail the 'revision advice' questions on page 144.
- 2) Use what you have learnt from the chapter to respond to the question,
'There is nothing in life which is truly evil'. Discuss.

Deadline for handing in your work will be the first lesson in September. You will receive a grade for your work.

Have fun getting ready for Sixth form 😊
